

Clothes Made Right

Fit Real Men as Well as This Cut Shows

What is it that makes a suit look snug and snappy? Its style. What makes it hold its shape and style? Sincere materials honestly cut and made carefully in every detail. If you are careful and want your clothes strictly correct, we can give you complete satisfaction.

Try us!

Peck Suits, - $10 to $22
Peck Overcoats, $10 to $25
Other Makes, - $5 up

F. E. Cutts & Co.

Tel. 344-L

CABOT.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Walbridge were guests of friends in Cabot Sunday.

Ernest Bliss has moved his family into Ernest St. John's house on Main street.

The Delta Alphas will hold a meeting Nov. 6 at the home of Mrs. John Livingston.

Eddie Burbank and Avon Hall have gone to Deland, Fla., expecting to spend the winter there.

Lyndon McAllister spent a few days in St. Johnsbury last week with his daughter, Mary.

A. M. Foster and Mrs. H. H. Foster were guests at Isaac Tabor's in North Cabot last week.

Homer Farrington has purchased the house on upper Main street recently owned by Mr. Chase.

E. A. Merritt accompanied John McLean to Burlington recently to have his eyes operated on for blindness.

D. J. Ross of Barre has purchased the goods of Nat Keith in the store at Lower Cabot and is ready for customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tabor of North Cabot were called to town recently to attend the funeral of Mrs. M. M. Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Billeau of Hardwick, accompanied by Mrs. Lucy Little, were in town last Tuesday, calling on friends.

Mrs. Bertha Goodell of Montpelier was in town last week to see her cousin, Mrs. Walter Ford. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Mann of Cabot.

Next Sunday, Nov. 5, Rev. W. E. Lowe will preach at the M. E. church, Monday, the 6th, the 21 and 3d quarterly conference will be held in the church, to which every adult member is invited.

A family reunion was held Sunday, Oct. 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Myers, three present being Mr. and Mrs. N. Corliss, Miss Elsie Corliss, Mr. and Mrs. E. Knight and Miss Violet from Post Mills; Selth Myers from Moretown, Mrs. F. Converse from St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. W. Myers, Miss Alice and Master Leigh from Cabot. A nice dinner was served and a good time in general is reported.

BROOKFIELD.

Harry Larose spent Sunday in Berlin. Lewis Pantou is boarding with Mrs. Isabel Amidon.

Mrs. L. L. Stone was in Randolph Friday on business.

Harry Jones succeeds John Raymore as sexton at the Center.

Thirty-five hunters' licenses have been taken out thus far in town.

Dan W. S. Graves has returned from his recent visit to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Colt of West street are very happy over the recent arrival of a little son.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stewart of Berlin visited at B. J. Williams' Saturday and at L. L. Stone's Sunday.

Leroy Spooner has gone to work in a machine shop in Springfield, Vt., and is soon to move his family there.

Miss Cecil Peake of St. Albans has come to stay for the present with her sister, Mrs. Martha Peake Kibbee.

The ladies' aid is to meet at the church Thursday, Nov. 2, and is to clean the church. In the afternoon there will be a business meeting and it is hoped a large number will be there.

Mrs. James McDermott, who has been an invalid for a number of years, was more than happily surprised recently, when I. N. Abbott brought her a new wheel chair. She feels grateful to all who were interested to make her such an acceptable and useful present.

BERLIN.

New silver offering plates were used for the first time at the morning service Sunday in the Congregational church. The gift of a company of young ladies, the plates bore the following inscription: "A gift to the Berlin Congregational church from the Sunshine club, Oct. 29, 1911." The engraving was executed by George E. Bosworth, son of the J. T. Bosworth, who constructed out of black cherry wood, some sixty years ago, the collecting boxes now going into honorable retirement. It is hoped that at the communion service next Sunday another gift to the church, in the shape of an individual communion service, will be used.

WEST TOPSHAM.

Clarence Moulton of Barre was in town Sunday.

E. C. Poole and Mrs. Olie Jeffords were in Barre Saturday.

R. M. Harvey of Montpelier was in town Saturday on business.

Charles Butler of Woodsville, N. H., is staying in town for a few days.

Mrs. Hilda Church is visiting her parents at Bradford for a few days.

H. C. McCullis arrived home this week, having been absent several weeks on business.

Mrs. Chalmers was called to Waits River last week to care for Mrs. Thayer, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hayward of Barre Town visited friends in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hayward of Corinth visited Mr. Hayward's brother, Leonard, over Sunday.

James Rouhan, who has been very sick since June, was taken to Waterbury for treatment this week.

K. Clyde Church of Woodsville, N. H., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Church, over Sunday.

State Treasurer DeWitt, Dr. H. L. Watson and wife and others from Montpelier were in town Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sanborn of Barre Town were called to Waits River by the illness of Mr. Sanborn's mother, Mrs. Lyman Thayer.

Visiting the farm of S. M. Hood on Zion hill, we find him well situated, with a nice fancy herd of Jerseys and Holsteins and quite a drove of young stock growing up. Mr. Hood is a great lover of fancy hogs. He probably raises now and in years past more hogs than any other farmer in town. He took to the Washington fair a Morgan colt six months old that tipped the beam at 500 pounds, taking the first premium. Mr. Hood has cut over 75 tons of hay, raised 250 to 300 bushels of nice potatoes and filled a large silo, besides also harvesting several acres of field corn. He says he does not have to go to Barre or any other town to raise good crops or good cattle. Mr. Hood is also master of our local grange and a great worker for the same, always pleased to meet a friend and extend the hand of friendship to the poor and needy.

MORETOWN.

Miss Florence Pierce is attending the high school at Montpelier.

Albert Warren of Barre is visiting at the home of Mrs. R. Sawyer.

Mrs. L. R. Russell and daughter, Lilian, of Montpelier visited local relatives several days last week.

Miss Maude Johnson of Montpelier visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnson, over Sunday.

Miss Jennie Foley is stopping with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Neary, during Mr. Neary's visit in the West.

Mrs. Ruth Carpenter returned to her home in Montpelier Thursday, after spending several weeks in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holt and their daughter of South Royalton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Griffith last week.

Mrs. Lewis Freeman and little daughter returned home Tuesday from a six weeks' visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. M. H. McAllister, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mary Fletcher hospital, returned to her home Monday.

Oris Armstrong of this town and Miss Helen Rice of Conway, Mass., were recently married at the home of the bride. Mr. Armstrong has many friends here, who extend congratulations.

There is to be a Halloween supper and social at the town hall Wednesday evening, November 1, under the auspices of the ladies' aid society. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Among those from this town who attended the district meeting of the Rebekah lodge, held at Waterbury October 27, were: Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Child and daughter, Irene, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ferris, F. H. Sawyer, Miss Mae Eaton and Miss Nora Griffin.

CORINTH.

Mrs. Bertha Eastman and mother are in Hyde Park for a several days' visit and Mrs. Nora Easter is keeping house for Mr. Eastman during his wife's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fagan from the West are visiting Mrs. Fagan's father, Oscar Hall.

Magoon Bros. will close their cider mill Nov. 4.

There will be an auction at the farm of the late Joseph Taplin Wednesday, Nov. 2.

Rev. Mr. Perkins preached his farewell sermon at the West Corinth F. B. church Sunday, Oct. 20.

Several tons of cider apples have been carried at Bradford, the price being 24c per cwt.

More deer are being seen in this section than for several years past.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. L. F. Wheeler from Lexington, Mass., arrived on Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. E. A. Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carter from Covington, Ky., left Sunday night for their home. Mrs. Carter has been here two months, with her sister, Miss Flora Carpenter, and Mr. Carter joined her here ten days ago to accompany her home.

Mrs. Etta Monroe of Windsor, who has been in Burlington with her daughter, Gladys, at the hospital for an operation for appendicitis, for two weeks, arrived last Friday to remain over Sunday with Mrs. Solomon Howard. Monday she went on to her home, taking her daughter with her.

EAST BARRE.

Dancing school at opera house hall, beginning Wednesday evening, Nov. 1. Instruction begins at 7:30. No one admitted unless a member of the class. Admission, 25c each.

Protect Yourself!
Get the Original and Genuine

HORLICK'S

MALTED MILK

The Food-drink for All Ages.

For infants, invalids, and growing children. Pure Nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates the nursing mother and the aged. Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Not in Any Milk Trust

Soldier's Suffering Stopped

Suffered Many Years from Gun Shot

Wound—Relief Came When Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease Was Applied.

Mr. Octave Bushey of 40 Hayward street, Burlington, Vt., writes the following letter to the proprietors of Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease:

"When eighteen years of age I was a soldier in the Ninth Vermont regiment and while in battle was badly wounded in the left elbow joint. From that time I have suffered greatly from this wound and from rheumatism in it. About two weeks ago I tried your 'Mysterious Pain Ease,' following the directions carefully, and was immediately relieved from pain. I wish all old soldiers who are suffering from gun-shot wounds and rheumatism would receive the same benefit, and never be without this wonderful remedy."

The sale of Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease increases every year. A bottle should be in every household. As a first aid in case of injury, nothing is its equal. In chronic cases of pain, it has proven to be a remarkable remedy.

Sold in 25 and 50-cent bottles by druggists, or by mail at the same price.

JUNIUS BARNES & SON, Proprietors Mysterious Pain Ease, Burlington, Vt.

For sale by:

D. F. Davis, Jr., Barre.
E. A. Brown, Barre.
C. H. Kendrick, Barre.
Burt H. Wells, Barre.
Fred D. Pierce, Barre.
East Barre Drug Co., E. Barre.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The Cat and the Fiddle" at Barre Opera House Wednesday.

The Hamilton, Ont., Spectator of September 23 has the following concerning "The Cat and the Fiddle," which appears at the Barre opera house to-morrow (Wednesday) evening:

"A jolly musical jingle holds sway at the Grand in 'The Cat and the Fiddle,' which appeared last night and pleased the people."

"The Cat and the Fiddle" is an extravaganza in three acts and eighteen scenes, so variety is well supplied, besides a bunch of pretty girls and lively songs. Along with all this is Harry B. Watson, as Happy, the tramp, who in his own peculiar way sends laugh after laugh along. Miss Frohman, a dainty little soubrette, filled the role of 'Kitty' well. Nellie Waters, as 'Polly,' pleased the boys; 'Polly' is some girl and in several of her songs she had the aid of the chappies in the gods. To see this play is like dipping into fairy land and the little people should be taken to see the wonderful people shown. There is the wicked fairy Great Gobs, the Green Demon, the Owl, the Witch, and best of all a beautiful good fairy who makes the happiest ending possible. Scenically it is fairly well staged and the musical numbers are particularly tuneful. 'The Cat and the Fiddle' gives a matinee to-day and another performance this evening."

Rainey Arctic Motion Pictures.

Animal life has been a study to man for many years, and the public schools all over this vast republic are taking up this interesting study. It is, of course, good for the children to learn all about the life and habits of these animals and become acquainted with them through the text books and by their visits to the zoo, but Mr. Paul Rainey, the millionaire sportsman and naturalist, has made it possible for the children to see this animal life in motion through his wonderful motion pictures of the north pole. They are also able to see on the canvass their cousin, the grinning Eskimo in his daily life at home with his family and with his dogs, fishing for seal or walrus, hunting the musk-ox or polar bear. The antics of the shaggy dogs and fur-clad babies furnished great sport for the young children, while the older folks revel in the hunting, fishing and capturing of the grizzly bears, the musk-ox, flying salmon and beautiful birds. All those who come to see these beautiful pictures will be regaled with wonderful views of the ice fields, where hundreds of years ago, Hendrick Hudson was set adrift by his rebellious crew. Thus the Rainey arctic motion pictures are helpful in school work as well as being instructive to sportsmen and naturalists, and on next Thursday night, Nov. 2, at the opera house, these wonderful pictures will be shown for the school children as well as their elders.

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

Says "Four Hundred" Is Full of Jews.

In the American Magazine for November, Mr. Finley Peter Dunne continues his wonderful satire on "Mr. Worldly Wiseman," the typical American millionaire. Mr. Wiseman discusses the ordinary American social prejudice against the Jews, and considers it a strange thing, since Americans worship money, and the Jews are the great financial lights. Says Mr. Wiseman:

"It is all the stranger when you reflect that a great number of the most

MONTPELIER.

Child Caught on Fender of Seminary Hill Can, But Escaped Uninjured.

The funeral of Col. A. C. Brown will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Unitarian church, Rev. J. Edward Wright officiating.

A small child belonging to I. Migliorini, who lives near the Seminary hill car tracks, ran in front of a descending car yesterday and was caught on the fender. The mother saw her child's danger and rushed to its assistance, running in front of the car herself and snatching the little one from danger. The child was unharmed, but the mother was bruised on the forehead and one limb. The motorman did not have time to stop his car on the down grade, so quickly did the child run onto the track.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.

The Livingston Manufacturing company of Rockland, Me., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, having no office here, but naming J. W. Gordon of Barre as one on whom papers could be served. The company has a capital of $50,000 and manufactures pneumatic tools, blacksmiths' quarries and stone cutters' tools and supplies.